ENIGMA TOURS

POTSDAM TOUR

Considered to be one of the most beautiful areas just outside of Berlin, no tour would be complete without visiting this unique gem. Royal palaces dot the tranquil landscape, and its central role in recent world history cannot be overstated. This benign setting is where the Big Three met after WWII to determine the post-war fate of Europe. Sights of interest include Sanssouci Palace and its enchanting gardens, the Neues Palais from which the Kaiser abdicated, Cecilienhof (location of the Potsdam Conference), the Glienicke bridge (scene of Cold War spy exchanges) and finally, the charming Altstadt itself. Collection from your hotel (Mitte & Tiergarten).

PRICE: 55 EUROS PER PERSON***

CONTACT: 030 8101 4644 OR 0176 4822 7556

* PRICE EXCLUDES OPTIONAL ENTRANCE FEES INTO MUSEUMS.

SACHSENHAUSEN TOUR

Located 40km north of Berlin, Sachsenhausen was one of the earliest camps established by the Nazis. Of the 200 000 inmates who passed through its gates, roughly 50 000 eventually died. Due to its proximity to Berlin, many political prisoners were held there. Inmates were used as slave labourers in diverse industries. The duration of the tour is roughly 4-5 hours. Collection from your hotel (Mitte & Tiergarten)
